DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on 2/2/04 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-8 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by United States Patent Number 5,587,827 to Hakimi et al.

As to claims 1-3, 6, 15-17, Hakimi et al. discloses a method comprising:

- Providing a first optical fiber having dispersion;
- Supplying an optical signal to said first optical fiber so that said optical signal is compressed on the time axis as propagating in said first optical fiber (column 1, lines 8-15;
- Supplying a compressed optical signal output from said first optical fiber to an optical device having saturated gain (column 3, line 5).

- Changing, by the optical device, the spectrum of the optical signal.

As to claims 4-5, Hakimi et al. discloses pre-chirping in column 2, lines 46-47 and column 3, lines 20-27.

As to claims 7-8, Hakimi et al. discloses a dispersion compensator (abstract).

As to claims 18 and 20, Hakimi et al. discloses the use of lasers, and erbium doped fibers as a pump light source (column 7, line 46).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hakimi et al. as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of United States Patent Number 5,798,853 to Watanabe.

Hakimi et al. discloses a method of compensating for dispersion by chirping, polarizing and pumping light in an optical fiber, but fails to explicitly disclose the use of an optical phase conjugator.

Watanabe teaches the use of optical phase conjugators to compensate for phase fluctuation such as linear phase distortion in optical transmission lines and polarization fluctuation.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to one skilled in the art to use an optical phase conjugator in Hakimi et al. in order to reduce effects from chromatic dispersion and polarization fluctuation in order to keep transmission characteristics from deteriorating.
